PLAZA

Planned to be one of the strongest and most thrilling musical plays of the day, "Justice," a four part screen feature, has been booked for presentation at the Plaza the latter half of week commencing with today's matinee. "Justice" is original in plot and theme and is carried out along lines entirely different from the ordinary dramatic subject. It is a play with a punch that finds an audience in the first chapter and holds interest in the last. The story is a story of heart interest, of conflicting emotions and of unique interpretations of the moral code as it is applied to the life of man and woman. There is a little doubt but that the picture will be a big drawing card as it has elsewhere.

The vaudeville program is also a splendid one, having for its headline attraction George Nagel and his American Beauties in a natty musical comedy farce entitled, "George Did It." There are nine people in the cast, each one the possessor of a pleasing voice and nimble toes. It is a novelty in every sense of the word, is handsomely staged and costumed and should meet with instant success.

Another offering of uncommon merit is that of Olga and Alado, the little Melba and the Russian Boy. Pianist. Both these young people are skilled artists and offer a repertoire of songs and piano pieces that will unquestionably be highly appreciated by local music lovers.

The remainder of the bill includes Green & Cole, two of the funniest Dutch comedians in the world of variety, and Mlle. De Pinna in a very clever aerial offering that should prove popular.

The Gambler's I. O. U., and "The Strength of a Samson" will be shown.

POLI'S

William Pruette, the Broadway musical comedy star, with Chas. Orr and a selected cast, head the program at Poli's, the last half of the week, in a miniature opera, "A Holland Romance." This production, staged by John Peebles, is the "first world" in things musical for the vaudeville world and comes here with a record of having been an instantaneous and merited success in the bigger houses of the country. It is adequately staged and the costuming is gorgeous.

Featured in the photoplay is the gripping Edison drama, "The Way Back." The story is a dramatic presentation of evil souls, reform, and features in a cast of unusual excellence. Miriam Nesbit, the talented screen star, Frank McGlynn and George Wright two other favorites.

A special extra attraction of unusual interest brings here two vaudeville comedians, O'Donnell and Blair, in a new and unusual vaudeville offering. Both of them are well known here and are sure of a happy reception.

Other big features of the big program are: Hal Stephens, assisted by Nobel Allan, in a vaudeville novelty, "Character Picturesques"; Bert Frank and company, in a Kennedy playlet, "Troubles of His Own"; Stuart and Stuart, in songs and dances; and the Tuxedo Trio, some songsters.

LYRIC

"One Day," the sequel to Elinor Glyn's famous novel, "Three Weeks," will be next week's offering of the Cecil Spooner Stock Company at the Lyric theatre. "One Day" is the vehicle in which Miss Spooner made a sensational run in New York, Chicago, Boston, and other big cities throughout the United States and Canada. In the cast at the Lyric theatre next week will appear several members of the original company.

"One Day" is one of the most dramatic love stories ever written. It is more absorbing in its theme than "Three Weeks" and is known to every reader of present day fiction. Miss Spooner will endeavor to give it a production at the Lyric next week which will vie with the original Broadway production of the place.

"My Arizona Girl," the present week's attraction at the theatre, continues to play to capacity houses. "My Arizona Girl" is proving to be one of the real big sensations of Miss Spooner's local engagement and indications are that the Lyric will do the biggest week's business of its history as a result of the popularity of this attraction.

EMPIRE

Robert Bosworth, one of the most talented as well as popular director and leading man, ably portrays the leading role in the five part Broadway universal masterpiece, "The Scarlet Sin," which heads the all feature select program offered at the above theatre today.

In this feature Mr. Bosworth again plays a deserved leading part, his excellent acting, as well as his able direction. An all feature Universal cast of leading players support this well known photoplay star and the production is one of the most powerful ever produced.

Other entertaining photoplay subjects will also be shown, rounding out an altogether pleasing and entertaining photoplay program.

John Barrymore, the ever popular screen and speaking stage comedian, appears tomorrow in one of the funniest hits of his career entitled "The Incurable Dukane," and the part played by this sterling comedy star is a real John Barrymore role and one that will delight admirers of this juvenile comedy star.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Grace Dalrymple Clarke, instructor of dramatic art of this city will have charge of the class of English speech and expression which the Bridgeport Art League has added to its course for the coming season. Part of the course will be devoted to contemporary poets and a part to the studies of the plays of Shakespeare, the tercentennial of whose death will be generally observed during 1916. The class, with Miss Clarke as teacher, promises to be one of the most popular of the numerous ones which the Art League offers.

Both the bride and groom are well known in this city. Mr. Van Wagner is a graduate of the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., and for two years was stationed with a cavalry company at Fort Laramie, Wyoming. He retired from the army a few years ago and entered the business world in which he has been most successful.

The pink domino dance which the Little Sisters are to hold this evening at the Brooklawn dancing pavilion promises to be one of the most successful of the season. The affair will be unusual in that only the female members of the party will be in costume and masked. The funds realized from the affair will be used for charitable purposes during the winter.

Wishing to the death of her father, Miss Irene Davis has resigned as chairman of the dance committee and Miss Louise Powe has been acting in her place.

The Little Sisters are the Misses: Helen Wheeler, president; Louise Powe, Mary Hincks, Elizabeth Bassick, Marion Henshaw, Carolyn Chapman, Irene Davis, Evelyn Teel, Esther Davis, Louise Atwater, Henrietta Atwater, Lois Cole, Alice Curtis and Alice Paul.
